

My great-great-grandparents came to America because they were hungry. They fled the Great Famine in Ireland for America, a country which held the promise that their children would never be hungry. With SB 611, Oregon can hold that same promise for immigrants today. Please pass SB 611.

Caroline Borduin
Lake Oswego