On Education

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB5516

We are short changing our children, literally. The time for fully funding education is now. We are in dangerous and unprecedented times and we need to stand up against any forces that want to further degrade an education system that is already under so much strain. We, as a state, need to make an unwavering commitment to education and fully lean into it. Support our youth and give them the education they deserve by giving our school systems adequate funding.
