Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB2050

Sir or Madam:

Many veterans have served long and productive careers in the various military branches, often at the expense of home and family. Many also suspended business or professional opportunities to honorably serve, at times at a net loss of productive income.

This measure allows prior serving veterans some recompense for elements of their lives when service was a financial burden upon family and civilian colleagues.

Thank you for the opportunity to provide input on this valuable measure,
