SB27

I am writing in support of SB 27 which includes ongoing funding for the Essential Worker Healthcare Trust. EWHT gives long-term care workers like me quality, low-cost health care coverage. I'm a hard worker and love the work I do. It's a very rewarding job to get to know people you would have never met in your life. It's an honor to be able to help them and its hard work, but I do it because these people are the ones that made America. They made it through tough times, they deserve great care.
