I fully support HB3647, and I am grateful to Lesly Munoz and her staff for working hard to help impact this change. The fact is, residents of Woodburn and those travelling I-5, have been ripped off too many times to count by the business that doesn't post their prices, and this bill will protect people from this in the future. How horrible would it be to find yourself in a situation where you just spent money that was intended for the entire week, only to find that you didn't even get a full tank. That's what many people faced, and then they faced not having food, or the ability to go to work- because often, financial mistakes are a choice between one necessity or another. I support this effort to make businesses more transparent and do what we can to keep people from a very difficult situation, which could easily become an even more difficult situation, if they're without resources or support.
