Any attempt to explain the ranked-choice proposal is a waste of time. We are well aware of the impetus driving this legislation. Domination. Pure and simple.

The sponsors and those in support of ranked choice voting are acting childish and should be ashamed. Sadly, shame and hypocrisy do not stick to small minded, insecure people. Because, in their bubble, the ends justify the means. That is precisely what this proposal is.

When you can't win in the arena of ideas, shut everybody else up.

Tyranny is your goal. That is undeniable.

Congratulations! You have become the tyrannical government the Founding Fathers and even the 1960's generation feared most.

My, how the pendulum has swung...
