

Submitter:

Fawn Morris

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SJR1

I'm in total support of the freezing of property taxes for seniors as they have worked the majority of their lifetimes and the taxes don't necessarily benefit them. With the inflation rates consistently rising and the seniors receiving their social security benefits they often have to choose between eating nutritious foods and paying for medical care. Oregonians deserve a better way of living in retirement.