

Submitter:

Kyle Law

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

House Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

HB3076

This is a clear example of government overreach and waste. There are plenty of safeguards in place as it stands. If someone is already cleared for a federal firearms license there is no need for further licensing. Use funds for something useful other than further inflating the government.