

Submitter:

Scott Wilson

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SJR1

I just seems a shame to never have your home truly be your own. We work 30years to pay for it and you still don't really own it ,because you always have property tax that is constantly going up. I believe there are a lot of seniors who simply can't afford this constant debt