

Submitter: Michael Miller

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Climate, Energy, and Environment

Measure, Appointment or
Topic: HB3932

Protecting our state animal in areas where water quality is "impaired" would help improve stream health and fire resistance. It would also serve as a gesture of respect for an important symbol of our region's history.