Chintimini Wildlife Center helps only native species, and this wonderful center has saved hundreds of thousands of injured local wildlife over the years. I have supported Chintimini by donations and by volunteering since I moved to Corvallis 24 years ago. They are doing their best to continue their efforts but are in dire need of Oregon's financial support. I strongly urge you to support Senate Bill 1131 and grant for CWC, the only place in our community where injured wild animals and birds can be taken for help. Thank you.
