There is already a strictly controlled federal system for dealer licensing. This bill is a punitive tax on Oregon business owners.

It also demands a study but does not specify how much to spend on the study nor where this money will come from. This is an open ended mandate with tax payer money.

Further, it is a waste of money because democratic legislators want to do everything they can to assault the second amendment in Oregon, this is just a formality. The study is going to conclude that a state licensing bill is a great idea and should proceed immediately with an emergency clause, tell me I'm wrong.
