

Submitter: Michael Pliska

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3076

Firearms dealers are already heavily regulated at the federal level. Adding more cost and bureaucracy is not going to make anyone safer except the criminals, who will continue to get their firearms through illegal paths and be less likely to encounter armed victims due to measures like this.