I am writing in support of SB1131. Chintimini is an important part of protecting Oregon wildlife. As one of the only wildlife hospitals in the valley, their work is invaluable in maintaining native species. This work is done through both their education department that interacts with the community by answering questions and promoting protection of our land and their rehab that saves many lives each year. Our community is better with them in it, and with extra support they could do so much more in helping our environment.
