

Submitter: Mihaly Szigeti

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Climate, Energy, and Environment

Measure, Appointment or
Topic: HB3932

Beavers are very beneficial for the environment. In eastern OR beavers create thriving wetlands which not only benefit the ecology but also serve as fire mitigation and livestock protection. They are gregarious and serve to enhance the river areas they populate.