

Submitter: Jody Gordon

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Climate, Energy, and Environment

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3932

Re-creating beaver habitats bring local ecosystems back into balance for flora, fauna, and water. The water stays in the area to generate watersheds that support native plants, insect and fish habitats which then calls the birds, amphibians, reptile and mammals to return. Nature knows best.