

Submitter: Ursula Moyer

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Climate, Energy, and Environment

Measure, Appointment or
Topic: HB3932

Beavers are important for our ecosystem. They are often called ecological engineers because their dams create wetlands which are essential habitats for so many other species. They are critical for the health of our environment .