

Submitter: Sarah Tucker

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Climate, Energy, and Environment

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3932

Beavers create essential habitat that benefits many, including humans. They improve water quality. They can assist in preventing the spread of wildfires by creating a more firewise ecosystem. As someone who has spent time out on the water, canoeing, I've seen first hand how effective a beaver rich water system can create improved water quality for a whole ecosystem.