I believe that we need to feed the hunger and cloth the naked. The best organization for that is the many churches that we have and who do it today. The problem is the state is completely incompetent in managing money. If we have migrants that are here legally and they need a hand up we should let local people or churches sponsor them like we did for the Vietnamese after the Vietnam war. If the migrants are illegal aliens then we need to deport them. We do not need another way for Human Services to waste "our" hard earned money. This is a bad idea.
