

Submitter: Matthew Jarman

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Climate, Energy, and Environment

Measure, Appointment or
Topic: HB3932

I believe this this bill restricts the rights of hunters and trappers to to chase their desired game animal on public land. And there is no scientific evidence that supports banning beaver trapping on state and federal land. This is an overreaching law that has been rejected time and time again by ODFW. Let's keep it that way