Lunar New Year? A new level of ridiculous grifting. No estimate of costs or effect on revenues is offered showing this is not a serious proposal. Does this have any connection or meaning to the general population ... NO. We have plenty of holidays for government workers and a backlog of work and long delays rather than timely service from government. The courts, DMV, tax questions, compliance questions: all need to show up to work and provide promised services. Oppose this boondoggle.
