

Submitter:	John McAlpine
On Behalf Of:	Third Act
Committee:	Senate Committee On Rules
Measure, Appointment or Topic:	SJR28

The Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of Oregon uphold the people's right to life and liberty. It follows that because the people's right to a healthy environment with clean air, clean water and a stable climate is essential to life and liberty, a healthy environment should be a fundamental right that requires constitutional protection.