

I'm writing in regards to using state bonds to pay for a ballpark in Portland. Simply don't, there's no team attached, there's no guarantee that the MLB will expand. If Oregon is going to have baseball, it should be funded independently not through the state. Use our bonds to create a more independent Oregon, one that doesn't rely on federal funding to do things like replace infrastructure and bridges and put out fires.

W Joseph Couch
Portland Oregon