Committee: Senate Committee On Human Services
Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB611

Why do we seem to have a government that appears to be more supportive of OUTSIDERS, CRIMINALS, DRUG & SEX TRAFFICKERS
... then the Oregon citizens who are truly in need and struggling???

How about taking care of those who actually live here, pay taxes, and are law abiding??

This has made Oregon an attractive place to come and receive free services if you are not working or do not plan to work. All at the expense of taxpayers.

Food stamp users are able to buy most items in the store — junk food, candy, chips, snack food, ice cream, and T-bone steaks regardless of nutritional value.

Oregon has been very generous to non-citizen benefits making Oregon top on nanny state benefits:
