

Submitter: DEREK ELLENWOOD

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Climate, Energy, and Environment

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3932

Taking away tripping rights from citizens while at the same time still allowing government employees to due the same is ludacris. Why not allow the citizen traps to deal with problem situations and and lay off the government hunters and save money?