

Submitter: Ron Schock

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SJR1

Property taxes are many times the highest expense seniors have that are on fixed incomes. With the cost of energy, home insurance and health insurance being so high a break on taxes that the seniors have paid nearly all of their adult lives will help keep seniors in their homes. Common sense measure that helps those that have paid consistently over the course of their home ownership life.