Subject: Concern Regarding HB 3800

Dear All Oregon Representatives ,

I am writing to express my strong opposition to the proposed HB 3800, which seeks to As an Oregon resident, I am deeply concerned about the broader implications of this bill, particularly how it would impact the financial well-being of hardworking individuals across the state.

While I understand the need for management in some areas, i believe this goes above and beyond necessary restrictions. This raises concerns about the potential for misuse or misallocation of resources that are meant to benefit Oregon's rural citizens.

Additionally, I have reservations about the significant increases in an already overburdened water shed that has been relocated to urban areas.

Thank you for your time,
Joanie Frazier
