

Submitter: Phil Smith
On Behalf Of: Ron Rhew
Committee: Senate Committee On Rules
Measure, Appointment or Topic: SJR28

Oregons environmental protection laws are inadequate. With global warming and the assault by federal government against environmental regulations we as a pioneer state in the environmental movement need to step up once more to further protect our children and grandchildren for the tough challenges ahead battling short sighted measures which would endanger their health and well being.