Ladies and Gentlemen, Do you realize irrigation wells are ALREADY metered? This bill is a duplication for farmers and ranchers. Restricting water usage will mean a reduction in crop production thusly LESS FOOD! Yea, that's right food is grown it doesn't magically appear in the grocery store. Peoples personal water usage on their own property is also already meter as many counties will only let you irrigate a quarter acre of yard. Did you know that? If you done more RESEARCH and asked the right questions of well COUNTY COMMISSIONERS or county planners you would know that. This bill is a duplication of things ALREADY BEING DONE
