Shall not be infringed! We can send our 18 year Olds to die for us, but you don't want them protecting their farms and ranches? That's pure hogwash.

My mom was using a rife at the age of 3. Knew the proper handling of a firearm. It was a requirement and should still be a requirement to teach our kids everything we can about firearm safety.

Heck when I was in school the kids had trucks with gun racks in them at the schools so they could hunt right after school was out. We didn't have any problems with gun violence.

Responsible citizens don't deserve this b.s.!
