

Submitter: cynthia mahoney

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Joint Committee On Addiction and Community Safety
Response

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3197

Oregon State appears to be overreaching on what has been considered the 'sin' tax. Is it legal to tax via each state? Of course. Is it because of the concern for the safety of every person in Oregon to remain sober? Of course not. It's to raise taxes for an unnamed reason. This should disturb every citizen in the state.