I would like to see in person voting come back. It was exciting for my child when she turned of age to go in person and get to vote. I believe we should take pride in our election's. Also after my father passed a way for many years they kept sending his voters pamphlet to our home. Even tho I let them know he had passed away. It makes it easy to get away with fraudulent votes if you wanted to. I'm for voting in person for several reasons and I mention a few of them.
