

Submitter:

Colleen Welch

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Oregon has one of the highest participation rates and lowest cost per ballot cast in the country. There is little evidence that fraud is a problem in elections. It makes zero sense for the legislature to repeal a cost effective, convenient method for citizens to cast their ballots. Repealing mail in voting is a "solution" in search of a problem.