

Submitter:

Robyn Klopp

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Oregon has some of the most accurate elections in the country with a low cost to voters and few errors. It would be a catastrophic mistake to force in-person elections, effectively disenfranchising our rural population. People who live far from potential polling stations would be disproportionately affected.