

Submitter:

Jean-Paul Zagarola

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

We have one of the best participation rates and a low voter fraud rate for a reason. This bill is asinine. The only reason to restrict mail-in voting would be to reduce participation in our election system, an undemocratic proposal. Voter fraud, which is not having any impact on our elections, can be addressed in other ways that does not limit participation.