This is necessary to ensure free, fair and honest elections. I've poll watched numerous times and the poll workers do the best they can with a flawed system. ONCE the ballot arrives at the courthouse, the chain of custody can be monitored- before that, it's impossible. This opens the entire process up for fraud and is THE reason why a huge number of Oregonians don't trust our elections. That, and the fact that Republicans have been locked out of power since the current, vote by mail only, system was mandated. I have little hope that a super majority Democrat Oregon would pass this, but hey, one can dream.
