

Submitter:

Rebecca Barnes

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Vote by mail improves voter turnout and ensures that all voices are heard. In person voting on the date of the election (when not all voters are able to a) get off work; or b) physically travel to a voting location) is voter suppression.

We should be wary of a bill that aims to reduce voter access to the polls. The opposite of democracy.