

Submitter: casey byers

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB210

Democracy won't work at all if only that subset of the population with time off work is allowed to vote. The push for voting to only happen in person is obviously for skewing votes away from the will of the majority. It is anti-democratic. I'm against it.