

Submitter:

Rachel Nichols

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

In-person voting is unnecessary and an attempt to disenfranchise voters.

Oregon has a model mail-in voting system and must continue to encourage voter participation with it.

At a time when state budgets can expect greater deficits it's absurd to change from our existing cost-effective and highly successful elections process to a more expensive less effective process.

No one SB210