

Submitter:

Peter Yoon

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

We must do everything we can to protect mail-in voting. A new bill is attempting to eliminate mail-in ballots and force all voters to cast their ballots in person, which would make voting less accessible, especially for seniors, people with disabilities, and those with demanding schedules. Mail-in voting is safe, secure, and increases participation in our democracy. We can't afford to roll back this essential option.