Members of the Committee,

One day maybe Oregon will find the truth again. I don't think it will be anytime soon. With the infected crop of current politicians and so called community leaders who are thoroughly manipulated with skewed stats & misdirection, the nation will continue to shake its head at the Left Coast. Stripping citizens of their Rights, burning cars and buildings and laughing at their Oath is perfectly OK with all but a few of today's Salem politicians.

The color of red on the voting map across our Nation will remain unseen by veiled eyes.

Others are waking up to the subterfuge of politicians who no longer believe in the Constitution of our Country and the consequences of continued bending of the knee. Piling on more ineffective laws is becoming a sport for Democrats.

And Oregonians giving up their Rights one after the other is the elixir to corruption in government. DOGE highlights so well what untethered government is capable of.

Go ahead Oregon politicians. Burn the pages of history. Drive people out of their jobs and businesses, force them to leave their homes and state, or wish they could. Ignore facts. Empty pockets with more exorbitant taxes too. All under the pretense of your more ineffective legislation. It's what mobs do. Death by 1000 cuts.

Freedom will just have to wait for Oregon.
