

Submitter:

Kate Dilworth

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Vote-by-mail is fantastic and should remain the standard. Research shows that universal vote-by-mail reliably increases voter turnout. It's good for democracy, and efforts to undo it are anti-democratic.