Mail in voting allows me to take my time and consider what I am voting for. It allows me to do it on my schedule and enables me to participate in elections without taking time off of work, waiting in long lines, or feeling pressured that I need to vote quickly to keep a long lines moving. Mail in voting is essential to our democracy for me and all other Oregonians. Forcing people to vote in person only is anti-democratic and an effort to limit voter participation.
