

Submitter:

Caroline Buchanan

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

There is no way convenience should overshadow accuracy in something as crucial to our freedom as elections. Proof of identity is critical. Emphasis should be on both educating high school Seniors about the value and importance of voting, marketing on social media to adults about same, and definitely not paying return postage for ballots. Common sense.