SB210

Removing mail in voting would negatively impact the poor, handicapped, and remote citizens and prevent their voices from being heard in an election. To do this would undermine the very foundation of our nation and concentrate political power into the hands of the wealthy and influential.

This is an affront to what it means to be an American. Anyone limiting or removing voting access is, by definition, a traitor to our nation. We must oppose these immoral attempts with every fiber of our beings as citizens. Everyone deserves a voice, and limiting that is an assault on the very concept of freedom and our national values.
