

Submitter: Elizabeth Scott Savage

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SJR30

Petitioners could gather 2.9 million signatures from Oregon's 3.04 million registered voters for an initiative and still not get it on the ballot.

It seems that this would make it easier for a single district to derail anything they didn't like, and if that is so, I see no forward movement.