

Submitter:

Mae Rockar

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Voting by mail is crucially important to allow as much voter participation as possible. Requiring people to dedicate a substantial amount of time on a specific day for voting when many have work and other obligations only serves to reduce voter participation. This proposal is antithetical to the principles of democracy and letting the voice of the people be heard.