SB210

Hi, my name is Evan Boies and I am a student at Oregon state university. Due to my status as a full time student I do not have as much free time as I'd like. One convenience that has benefited me throughout my education, both during my high school years and college, is mail in voting. Election Day does not always fall on the most advantageous day for students. Being able to fill in my ballot and think about it in the comfort of my home days before Election Day is a modern wonder. The position to get rid of this system is flawed and a slight against those who aren't fortunate enough to go out on one specific day and stand in a long line. Please do not go forward with this, the people of Oregon would be outraged.
