

Submitter:

Billy Wilson

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Hello

I am in support of in-person, date of the election the standard for conducting an election. I think this is a fair easy way to insure secure election results. We have tried the current method and it doesn't work. Too many questions and problems with system. Results from elections taking months to tabulate. In person voting solves lots of problems with verification of identity.