

Submitter: Wyatt Hougham

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB210

Mail-in voting makes voting more accessible, easier, and allows voters to thoroughly research their choices during voting. Mail-in voting has an impeccable track record, works great, and any attempt to remove it with justification of 'fraud' is just a thin smokescreen to disenfranchise voters. Everyone, on all sides of the political spectrum, should support systems that allow more eligible people to vote: it's the very foundation of democracy.